

Student Affairs and Services in Higher Education: Global Foundations, Issues and Best Practice

UNESCO – IASAS – 3rd Edition 2018

OPEN CALL: Country reports are invite

UNESCO in collaboration with the International Association of Student Affairs and Services (IASAS) is preparing a 3rd edition of Student Affairs and Services in Higher Education: Global Foundations, Issues and Best Practices (2009, 2nd Edition).

(See 2009 edition: <http://iasas.global/wp-content/uploads/2015/04/UNESCO-IASAS-Book.pdf>)

The editor-in-chief is Roger B. Ludeman, Introduction by Philip Altbach, Senior Associate Editors are Birgit Schreiber and Howard Wang.

After consultation with the Advisory Board, IASAS and UNESCO, various sections have been extended and re-focussed. One of the most exciting shifts is the focus on the country reports which will see this edition report on over 100 countries' Student Affairs and Services.

For this purpose country reports from across the globe are invited.

The country reports are collated into a collective section XVI, Birgit Schreiber (birgitschreiber@sun.ac.za) will coordinate this section. In addition, we have requested associate editors for each region to assist in collating the country reports. These are the details of the associate editors for the regions.

| | | |
|---|---|--|
| Africa | Thierry Luescher | thierryluescher@outlook.com |
| Asia/Oceania | Howard Wang Duanhong Zhang Jordi Austin | jordi.austin@sydney.edu.au zhangdh@fudan.edu.cn howard.s.wang@duke.edu |
| Europe | Danja Oste Sven Engel | danja.oste@studentenwerke.de sven.engel@studentenwerke.de |
| Middle East | Wadad El-Husseiny | wadad@qu.edu.qa |
| North and Central America, Caribbean | Lisa Bardill Moscaritolo | lbardillmoscaritolo@pace.edu |
| South America | Raul Leon María Amelia Viteri | rleon1@emich.edu mviteri@usfq.edu.ec |

A country report will have the following sections:

1. Background information on higher education system and evolution of student affairs and services
 2. Typical organizational structure of student affairs and services within an institution
 3. Typical services and programmes offered
 4. Qualifications and training of staff
 5. Issues and challenges for student affairs and services in your country
 6. Websites of student affairs and services professional associations and organizations
 7. Websites with links to student affairs and/services publications and research
- ca. 1000-2000 words
 - APA referencing

This is an open call. Please contact the region coordinator, see table above, or Dr Birgit Schreiber (birgitschreiber@sun.ac.za) for enquiries for a submission on a country. We seek authors from indigenous and local sources.

First draft manuscripts are due by end of May 2017 and reports are reviewed, thus qualifying for author subsidy, depending on the rules and regulations of your affiliated university.