

University Volunteer Youth Forum 2018

Forum Overview

Qatar University will host an international volunteer forum that aims to promote innovation and creativity in the field of voluntary work and social entrepreneurship, and highlight the best practices, experiences, and published research in this area. The Forum also seeks to promote volunteer work, community service and civic engagement to raise awareness of its importance in the development of all communities.

This forum will provide an opportunity for students to share experiences, training and access to the latest work-related to volunteerism and community service. Also, a series of workshops and seminars will be conducted by professionals from around the MENA Region and the world.
