

Dr. Lisa Bardill Moscaritolo (Dean Lisa) is Associate Vice President for Student Affairs & Dean for Students at Pace University, Pleasantville (45 minutes from New York City), in New York in the US. She provides overall leadership and direction to the Student Affairs division. Lisa has a Masters in Higher Education and College Student Personnel from Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida, an Education Specialists degree in Mental Health Counseling and a Doctorate in Leadership from Barry University in Miami, Florida.

Dr. Bardill Moscaritolo has presented and written on international education and globalizing student affairs/service practice and advancing international research. She is a founding member and general secretary for the International Association of Student Affairs and Student Services- IASAS, which was founded in March 2010 and chartered in Brussels, Belgium in July 2013.

Lisa has been teaching management and leadership classes for Purdue Global University, formerly Kaplan University, for 12 years.