Context

The Global Summit brings together leaders in Student Affairs from across the globe to engage in strategic dialogue on key issues in Student Affairs and Higher Education. It is a platform for critical discussion and deepens the community of practice that spans the globe, within an international framework of services for students.

The 2022 global summit will be held at the University College Cork and will include an in person and virtual option. The University of Toronto with CACUSS held the first virtual summit in 2021. Previous Global Summits were held in Washington (2012), Rome (2014), Cape Town (2016), and Santiago (2018).
